Because the blues in the Delta region in the northwest corner of Mississippi is so much a part of the region's oral culture, little about it has the appearance to historians of being known for certain. As a result, many presentations of Delta blues history have had to rely on much that some readers may take as speculation, folktale, even myth.

Delta Blues: The Life and Times of the Mississippi Masters ...

The Delta blues show a distinctively metaphysical, personal cast. The tension between the life of a vagrant musician and a life devoted to God pervades the music of Son House, Tommy Johnson, Robert Johnson and others. Gioia is at his best when he describes this tension and gives it central place in his treatment of the Delta blues.
