In Christianity, angels are agents of God, based on angels in Judaism. The most influential Christian angelic hierarchy was that put forward by Pseudo-Dionysius the Areopagite in the 4th or 5th century in his book De Coelesti Hierarchia (On the Celestial Hierarchy).. During the Middle Ages, many schemes were proposed about the hierarchy of angels, some drawing on and expanding on Pseudo ...

Angels was a book that I was very excited to get my hands on. After hearing about the Divine Council and learning more about the spiritual realm (see our BR on Heiser's "Unseen Realm" for more information) I was very interested in Dr. Heiser's take on angels and demons. To be honest, angels are something I know very little about.
